To Benefit St. Luke's Home
March 31, 2012

Tucson Country Club

The Baile de las Flores is the oldest charity event in Tucson and one of the old Pueblo's signature events. The Board of Visitors presented the first ball in 1919 in support of St. Luke's Sanitarium. Ladies wore beautiful Mexican ball gowns and the men were in black tie. The lobby of the Santa Rita Hotel was transformed into a fiesta with the entertainment coming from Hollywood.

Today, the Baile continues the fiesta theme and guests don colorful attire. Adding to the festivities are mariachis and ballet folklorico dancers who fill the room with music and entertainment and who lead the grand march into dinner and dancing. The evening will include:

No-Host Cocktails
Silent Auction
Delicious Dinner
Dancing into the Night

Each year, a celebrated artist from the Tucson area generously donates an original painting to be raffled at the event. This year's artist is Kurt Anderson.
